

- Have you lost or found an item option button on home page
 - Subpages for lost item categories
 - Subpages for found item categories
 - Subpages – contain actual posts
 - Will include title/brief (ie 2 word) description of object (black jacket, green Wash U camelback)
 - Where it was last seen/found and date
 - Key words that will help searches
 - Subpages will contain search box
 - Form for found/lost item is at bottom of page > must scroll through all things in category to get to form
 - In form > question that helps identify the object > will not be posted (screen background of iPhone, sticker on water bottle or something)
 - Is a screening question that will help with identifying the finder/loser and help protect the poster
 - On actual post will have either “that’s mine” button or “found” button that will
 - Will give contact info (email/phone + name of finder/lost) if they can get past the screening question
 - If not will be able to send an email through the server claiming the object but will not get poster’s info
 - Poster can mark item as resolved
 - Guidelines for posting
 - Don’t post photos for ID’s or other sensitive items
 - Otherwise photos are encouraged
